Of these, 46 Suits (9 contested and 9 uncontested by the Sub-Judge, Bangalore, 4 contested and 6 uncontested by the Sub-Judge, Mysore and 13 contested and 5 uncontested by the Sub-Judge, Shimoga) were disposed of leaving a pendency of 487 Suits at the close of the quarter, with the result that there was a slight increase in the pending file by 9 cases, which is due to intervention of summer vacation.

Munsiffs' Courts (24).

At the close of the previous quarter, there were pending 11,371 Original Suits and since then, 4,100 Suits were instituted making a total of 15,471 Suits for disposal. During the quarter under Review, the Courts were closed for summer vacation for six weeks from 3rd April to 13th May 1933 and the slight rise in the pendency as above in spite of a large number of disposals, viz., of 3,212 Suits, during the comparatively short period of one month and a half, for which the Courts worked during the quarter, was due to the institution of a large number of Suits (4,100) after the re-opening of the Courts.

Subordinate Judge's Courts (3).

II. Small Cause Suits.—There were pending 2,411 Small Cause Suits from the previous quarter and 2135 were instituted since, making a total of 4,546 Suits for disposal during the quarter. Of these, 1,949 Suits) 384 contested and 1,565 uncontested) were disposed of leaving a pendecy of 2,597 Suits, the slight rise in the pending file by 186 being due to reasons similar to those set forth in respect of original Suits above.

Munsiffs' Courts (25) including the Second Class Magistrate's Court, Shimoga.

Three thousand, eight hundred and ninety-four Small Cause Suits were pending in all the Munsiffs' Courts at the close of the previous quarter and 4,180 were subsequently filed, making in all 8,074 suits for disposal. Of these, 3,277 Suits (408 contested and 2,869 uncontested) excluding 98 cases transferred were disposed of, leaving a pendency of 4,797 Suits, the rise in the pendency being due to the same reasons given above.

Appellate Work.

District Judges' Courts (4).

The number of institutions of appeals of both Regular and Miscellaneous during the quarter was 152 and 45 respectively,

Inclusive of 1,275 Regular and 265 Miscellaneous Appeals pending at the close of the previous quarter, there were 1,427 Regular and 310 Miscellaneous Appeals for disposal. Of these, 67 Regular (50 contested and 17 uncontested) and 42 Miscellaneous Appeals (25 contested and 17 uncontested) were disposed of and 264 Regular and 43 Miscellaneous Appeals were transferred, leaving a pendency of 1,096 Regular and 225 Miscellaneous Appeals (611 Regular and 119 Miscellaneous Appeals in the Courts of the District Judges, Bangalore, including the Additional District Judge, 249 Regular and 47 Miscellaneous Appeals in Mysore and 236 Regular and 59 Miscellaneous Appeals in Shimoga).

Subordinate Judges' Courts (8).

Inclusive of 324 Regular and 22 Miscellaneous Appeals that were pending at the commencement of the quarter, there were 598 Regular and 66 Miscellaneous Appeals for disposal (including the appeals received by transfer, re-admitted, etc.,). Of these, 97 Regular (excluding 2 Regular appeals re-transferred) and 11 Miscellaneous appeals were disposed of and the rest, viz. 499 Regular and 55 Miscellaneous Appeals were left pending.

The main reason for the increase in the pendency of all kinds of cases at the close of the quarter under review, is the intervention of the vacation of six weeks during the quarter and to the heavy institutions after the re-opening of the Courts.
